

3,650 Acres of Rolling Hill Country

Excellent grass country with pipeline water, highway access and good location. The wide open spaces and native hard grass of northwestern South Dakota is home to some of the best ranch country available, perfect for raising livestock of all kinds. This ranch totals more than 3,650 acres with just over 2,978 acres deeded and an additional 680 acres of lease. Rolling hills and draws provide excellent cover for deer, antelope, and coyotes. Water sources include pipeline water to all pastures in addition to dams and dugouts. All less than an hour north of the beautiful Black Hills of South Dakota and all of the recreational opportunities available there. $997,767
