

This is truly a must-see custom log home with more amenities than can be described herein. Located in a very majestic area with breathtaking rock outcrops and wild game galore. This is absolutely a year-round living paradise with custom features to this home like no other to be found in the Black Hills marketplace today. A full listing of the features can be found in the map and photo section of this listing. Bonnie's husband John was a well-known upper-echelon executive with General Motors and everything he did in life was right, and this majestic property shows his determined attention to exquisite detail. Nearly $2.8M was invested in the construction of this Black Hills gem. Further, as this property is nearly completely surrounded by the Nature Conservancy, a great abundance of wild game including trophy white-tailed deer, occasional elk, Black Hills turkey and resident mountain lions can be found freely roaming this and the surrounding property. This property lends itself extremely well as an exclusive corporate retreat for those discerning individuals, or as a spectacular custom log home with complete privacy, yet tremendous ease of access. $2,000,000
