

Canfield's Rapid Creek Frontage

This 3.4 acre parcel in Solomon Gulch borders thousands of acres of USFS that has limited access. Close to Rochford, SD, this property overlooks Rapid Creek, known for its fabulous fishing and gold panning history. The 3 bedroom, 1 bath, 1,227 square foot home is ideally suited for mountain living. It is surrounded on two sides by a 239 sq ft deck with unobstructed views of the valley. There are mule deer, turkey, coyote, occasional elk, owls and eagles to name a few of the neighbors. The area has mild to moderate winters and is a short trip to many National Parks, golf courses, the 100 mile long Mickelson Trail and historic landmarks of the Black Hills National Forest. Lead and Deadwood are only 25 minutes away as well as access to skiing at Terry Peak. Snowmobile, ATV, mountain biking, snowshoeing and cross country ski trails can be accessed directly from the property. Come see this charming property which is suited for year round or seasonal living or vacation rental.
