

Talented wood worker creates a home of beauty. If you like having a cabin or home that has a story to tell, look no further. Nestled in the Glacial Lakes region near the State Hwy Intersection of SD HWY 10 & SD HWY 25 on 2.55 acres surrounded in mature native cottonwoods, stands a custom built 1200 sq. ft. cabin finished with red cedar countertops, stainless steel appliances, along with a western facing porch in conjunction with an outstanding unattached 30'x40' garage/shop with a southern facing porch that creates an atmosphere of pure relaxation and privacy. Beautiful reclaimed wood from surrounding communities creates a wood lovers story to tell. With original old-fashioned tin ceiling in the kitchen, one is reminded that this property is so unique that a cabin of this sort stands alone. The home owner is finished with his vision of the home and is ready to have someone call it their home or home away from home. This home is clearly priced to sell—make an offer today!
